

LETTER OF INTENT

The intent is to replace the existing roofing tile in kind with the exact S tile. We believe this to be the original roof installed and if so, it will not be a deviation from the original design of the building. In regards to Section 18-205 this is not new construction. The homeowner is not proposing an additional structure that would trigger this code section by his and our understanding.