Question applies to Code Enforcement Board

Why do you feel you are qualified to serve on the Town's Code Enforcement Board?

I have lived on the island since 1987. My wife and I raised our three children here. I have served for the past three years. I believe that my insight and legal background encouraged the Town to adopt a legal methodology to collect outstanding fines that had not been paid for years as well as demonstrating that code compliance by its residents and those that work on the island is an important quality of life issue for all residents.

Please attach proof of residency (as listed above) with this application.

Please note that Board/Commission applications will expire on December 15 of each year.

CODE ENFORCEMENT BOARD

Hears cases involving violations of the Town Code and ordinances and imposes administrative fines and other noncriminal penalties where a pending or repeated violation exists. Members must be residents and are appointed by Town Council on the basis of experience or interest in the fields of zoning and building control. The Board includes, whenever possible, an architect, business person, engineer, general contractor, realtor, subcontractor, general member, or person with experience in the field of public health. In addition, the Town Council may appoint two alternate members for the purpose of serving in the absence of any of the board members. Members (and alternate members) shall be appointed for terms of three years. A member of the code enforcement board shall not be appointed for more than two consecutive three-year terms, but shall be eligible for reappointment upon the lapse of nine months after the expiration of the member's second consecutive three-year term.
