Good afternoon. I wanted to share my enthusiasm regarding The Royal Poinciana Plaza's plans for the playhouse. Having grown up in Palm Beach (Monterey Road), I remember going to plays and ballets at the theater and I remember the energy in the Plaza on those days and nights. I'm very excited about WS Development's plan for the playhouse in that it offers exactly what I've been saying this town needs – a multi-purpose space that not only provides for performing arts, but other cultural events and even meeting and gallery space. I especially appreciate the thought that went into the design, both opening the east side to relate to the Plaza and the west side to the water. The fact that a Palm Beacher (Avie Glazer) is spearheading this redevelopment is a win-win.

Although I now live in West Palm Beach, I have worked in Palm Beach since 1999 and I've been with Brown Harris Stevens in Palm Beach (offices in the Royal Poinciana Plaza's Slat house and at 353 Worth Avenue) since 2003. I would like to ask the Town to support this project. Thank you, Ava Van de Water
