Ladies and Gentlemen...We have been residents of Il Lugano at 300 Seminole Avenue for the past 9 years, and have truly enjoyed being part of the vibrant Palm Beach community.

As neighbors of, and frequent visitors to The Royal Poinciana Plaza, we have watched its growth and evolution over the past few years, and have been so impressed with what it has become. Between the shops and restaurants, The Royal has become an integral part of the Palm Beach experience.

And now, with the prospect of the Playhouse and adjacent waterfront property finally being renovated and brought to life, we look forward to yet more reasons to visit.

WS Development have demonstrated their expertise and experience in redeveloping and managing the project to date. And we certainly expect that the same level of quality and sense of experience will be utilized in renovating and running the Playhouse.

Please let us know if you have any questions.

Lizzie and Jonathan Tisch
