Question applies to Code Enforcement Board

Why do you feel you are qualified to serve on the Town's Code Enforcement Board?

Because I have served as an alternate member, a member, a Vice Chair and Chair of this Board. I am a down to earth independent thinker and am able to make decisions that serve the greater good of the Town. I was the President of the Board of Directors of The Reef Condominium Association for 6 years and am a Vice Chair of the Citizens' Association of Palm Beach. I understand and respect the process and actions that are expected from this Board and would be honored to be appointed for a second term.

To enable Town Council to consider potential conflicts of interest, please list the family members who live and/or work in the Town of Palm Beach, including your spouse, parents, siblings or children.

Please note that Board/Commission applications will expire on December 15 of each year.

CODE ENFORCEMENT BOARD

Hears cases involving violations of the Town Code and ordinances and imposes administrative fines and other noncriminal penalties where a pending or repeated violation exists. Members must be residents and are appointed by Town Council on the basis of experience or interest in the fields of zoning and building control. The Board includes, whenever possible, an architect, business person, engineer, general contractor, realtor, subcontractor, general member, or person with experience in the field of public health. In addition, the Town Council may appoint two alternate members for the purpose of serving in the absence of any of the board members. Members (and alternate members) shall be appointed for terms of three years. A member of the code enforcement board shall not be appointed for more than two consecutive three-year terms, but shall be eligible for reappointment upon the lapse of nine months after the expiration of the member's second consecutive three-year term.
