Henry D. “Budge” Jamison IV

Henry D. “Budge” Jamison IV was reared in Nashville, Tennessee and began his business career at Jamison Bedding and Furniture, Inc., his family’s fifth generation 130-year-old manufacturing firm.

Following the sale of his family business in 1979, Budge founded Jamison Research, Inc. to develop the nation’s first comprehensive commercial property information service similar to the residential Multi-Listing Service (MLS) but for commercial properties.

The company established multiple interrelated databases throughout major metropolitan areas and delivered its data and updates electronically to its clients through a proprietary intranet system – a full decade before the advent of the Internet. In 1999, Jamison Research was sold to CoStar Group (NASDAQ: CSGP) and Budge retired after twenty-one years in the commercial real estate information business.

Budge has been active in the Palm Beach County area as a former 10-year volunteer Rec Center soccer coach and as a former 2-term board member of the Town of Palm Beach Recreation Commission. He is a former Trustee and President of the non-profit Palm Beach Tennis Association, former Vice-Chairman of the Board of the North Palm Beach and Florida Region of the Young Life Christian youth organization, former 12-year member of the Salvation Army’s Advisory Board serving as its Chairman for the past 6 years, and former Board Member and staff photographer at the Palm Beach Zoo.

Budge is an avid photographer, backpacker, fisherman, SCUBA diver, and tennis player. He and his wife Candy Lees Jamison, a Palm Beach native, are 21-year residents of Palm Beach. They have been married for 35 years and have 3 children, Maggie, Henry, and Ellie. Candy is Counseling Therapist at Palm Beach Atlantic University.
