Question applies to Recreation Advisory Commission

I think a rec center should be a central place for members of the town to socialize and stay in shape and learn. A town is always better when citizens know each other and have a sense of belonging.

In Richmond, Va Windsor Farms Garden Club - was one of the largest in the state. Historian for 2 years
Ridge Top Recreation Assoc. - Board ran the pool, tennis courts and playground. Facilities, staffing, capital improvements and programs. Lacrosse Board 7-8 years. With other parents started program for girls and boys in middle school through high school. Early years I coached, recruited, found practice fields, then hired coaches. Got the sport to county wide school sanctioned varsity and jv level.

Please describe your current and past involvement/participation in Town recreation programs and/or facilities.

Starting playing tennis when I came as a guest. After I moved to Town, I tried playing tennis on a team, but was turned away. From playing in the local league for the past several years and from talking with neighbors, I found I'm not alone. Tennis is very hard to participate in - limited court group activities and very expensive. Useful clinics, related to skill level and inclusive, are not offered. There weren't many available classes during Covid. The classes I looked into were at the wrong times for a "sporty" person. (Tennis and golf and outdoor Picketball are in the mornings. )
