Mr. Floersheimer thanked the professional for the inspiration photographs. He liked the concept of the bike storage area. He was in favor of the planters that hid the increased elevation of the home. He thought the east and west facades were successful; but questioned the north and south facades.

Mr. Sammons agreed with Mr. Martin's comments. He liked the east/west facades but was not as enamored with the north and south facades. He thought the windows on the north elevation were a little lean. He expressed a concern for the removal of the secondary building and wondered if the style of the home would fit onto the street. Overall, he thought the house was good.

Ms. Connaughton thought the presentation was successful and the project was nice. She asked the professional to pull the home more forward on the lot. She recommended trying to change the windows on the second floor, front façade.

Mr. Kirchhoff was in favor of the project. He wondered if there was a bit too much detail on the home. He wondered if the chimneys were too stylized and agreed maybe a painted, brick base would look better. He questioned the infill area with the clapboard siding; he recommended adding shingles to this area. He also questioned the vertical panes in the upper sashes on the windows; he recommended using divided lites.

Ms. Grace thought the house was nice and did not have any issues with the variances. She did question the stone on the bottom of the home and chimney.

Ms. Shiverick liked the design and was in favor of the bungalow. She agreed with Mr. Kirchhoff that it may be a little too stylized. She also suggested to restudy the stone on the chimney and surround on the bottom.

Mr. Karakul thought the presentation was wonderful and well thought out. He offered his support of the project.

Mr. Smith agreed and thought the presentation was nice. He liked the style of the home and supported the project.

Ms. Grace suggested using a lighter window frame.

Jaime Torres Cruz, Fairfax and Sammons, presented the architectural modifications for the existing, commercial building.

Dustin Mizell, Environment Design Group, presented the landscape plans proposed for the site. He presented an alternate plan on the overhead projector, which showed more landscape screening.

Mr. Smith called for public comment.

Harvey Oyer, attorney representing The Colony Hotel, indicated that any approval for the eight proposed windows would not constitute an approval for additional windows. He thanked the professionals for working with them on their items of concern. He outlined the items that they had agreed to and discussed the two items that still were outstanding. He then discussed his requests, particularly the items that his client would like to see to move forward.

Please note: Mr. Martin left the room at 2:55 p.m.

M. Timothy Hanlon, attorney for Wilson 150 Worth LLC, acknowledged the items agreed upon by both parties. He discussed items laid out by Mr. Oyer, addressing the dates for construction, the height of the proposed landscaping, and Mr. Oyer's client's stipulation for any future lease agreements.

Ms. Shiverick thought the Commission's purview was the aesthetics of the windows, which she did not believe was an issue. She thought the only issue would be the timing of the construction.

Ms. Grace did not have an objection to large, plain walls. She did express concern for the proposed eight windows that were tightly spaced, while leaving the remainder of the wall bare. She also suggested the possibility of adding more under plantings to screen the new pool of the neighbor.

Mr. Floersheimer agreed with Ms. Shiverick's statement; however, he felt more landscaping was needed to screen the east garden of the neighbor. Mr. Floersheimer recalled the discussion that the windows would be obscured for privacy. Mr. Torres Cruz stated that the windows would be gray tinted.

Mr. Karakul inquired about the sill of the windows. Mr. Torres Cruz responded. Mr. Karakul thought all the windows should be screened with landscaping.

Mr. Kirchhoff inquired about the property lines shown on the plans. Mr. Mizell responded. Mr. Kirchhoff recommended moving the sidewalk along the building and planting an entire row of screening for the windows. Mr. Kirchhoff also questioned the proposed Pigeon Plum trees and wondered if they were the appropriate material.

Mr. Oyer stated his client did not oppose the windows and thought Mr. Sammons did a good job with the design. He thought the issue was the lack of landscaping. He agreed with the other Commissioners that the area in question needed more landscaping.

Mr. Smith suggested that the Commission approve the windows as proposed but to defer the landscaping to allow both parties to come up with a solution.

There was a short discussion on whether the windows should be approved without the landscaping plan.

Mr. Hanlon stated that the owner had no objections to committing the addition of plantings along the full length of the windows.

Motion made by Mr. Karakul and seconded by Ms. Shiverick to approve the project with the following conditions: dense, mature landscaping shall be added along the full length of the windows, which shall be agreed upon by both parties, and the construction schedule shall be agreed upon by both parties. Motion carried unanimously, 7-0.

Jay Biggins, owner at 353 Peruvian Avenue, stated that he planned on bringing changes to the property several times in the future. He discussed the Code Enforcement violation for the property.

Ms. Grace wondered why Code Enforcement could not speak to the Planning and Zoning Department to determine a plan for reconciliation.

Ms. Ziska explained the Code Enforcement violation to Town Attorney Randolph.

Mr. Murphy stated that the permit presented to staff indicated improvements, not maintenance to remedy a Code violation. He indicated staff would be happy to work with the applicant; however, they were initially looking at new elements on the site.

Mr. Mizell indicated that while they were seeking to remedy the Code Enforcement violation, they were also seeking approval for the proposed changes.

Mr. Smith asked if the awnings would be removed from the building. Mr. Biggins stated he would like to remove them. Mr. Mizell stated it was not included in the current application.

Please note: Mr. Martin returned at 3:24 p.m.

Mr. Sammons inquired about the material for the deck. Mr. Mizell stated it was Ipe decking. Mr. Sammons encouraged any changes that would help to get the building reinstated and looking nicer for the neighborhood. He thought the Commission should opine on the landscaping to assist with settling the Code Enforcement violation.

Ms. Ziska read an email from the Code Enforcement Department that addressed the violation.

Mr. Biggins stated there were no awnings in the interior courtyard of the building.

Ms. Shiverick thought the plantings were too contemporary. She thought the garden looked like it did not belong in Palm Beach. She thought more traditional plantings should be used.

Ms. Connaughton agreed with Ms. Shiverick. She questioned the character of the interior courtyard as proposed. She thought the landscaping felt a bit too modern for the space.

Ms. Grace thought there was no context to determine whether the landscaping was appropriate.

Mr. Kirchhoff agreed with Ms. Shiverick. He questioned the materials proposed and thought the design should be more consistent with the area.

Mr. Martin wondered if the design should resemble the walkways in Major alley. He suggested adding more hardscape in the area. He questioned the colors proposed for the landscaping as well as labeling the space a Via. He suggested toning down the landscaping.

Ms. Grace thought the building looked dilapidated. She was unsure how the owner would attract visitors until the building was resolved.

A discussion ensued about a possible motion for the project, as well as how to help the applicant resolve the Code Enforcement violation.

Motion made by Ms. Shiverick and seconded by Ms. Grace to defer the project to the October 26, 2022 meeting, with the direction that the professional restudy the garden and return with a less contemporary looking garden and that staff assist the applicant in resolving the Code Enforcement violation. Motion carried unanimously, 7-0.

Mr. Smith inquired about the black material. Mr. Baumoehl responded.

Ms. Grace was in favor of the existing colors of the building. She requested to see some colors that better represented Palm Beach.

Mr. Karakul agreed with Ms. Grace. He recommended using a white awning with more limestone. He was not in favor of the black awning.

Mr. Floersheimer agreed but understood some of the Palm Beach colors did not work with the store's branding. He thought the solution would be a compromise. Mr. Baumoehl understood the concern and stated he would speak to his client.

Ms. Grace indicated that she would like to see any other color than black; she did not believe that color fit on Worth Avenue.

Motion made by Ms. Shiverick to defer the project to the September 28, 2022 meeting, to allow the professional to determine if the awning color can be changed to a lighter color and to reduce as much black items as possible.

Mr. Baumoehl asked if he could order the storefront in black. A short discussion ensued on whether the storefront could be ordered.

Mr. Sammons was not worried about the black storefront as much as the other black elements proposed.

Motion amended by Ms. Shiverick and seconded by Ms. Grace to defer the project to the September 28, 2022 meeting, to allow the professional to determine if the awning color can be changed to a lighter color, to reduce as much black items as possible, and to see if the detailing around the storefront could be changed to stone. Motion carried 6-1, with Mr. Floersheimer dissenting.

2. ARC-22-174 223 WORTH AVE. The applicant, Jerome Baumoehl Architect, Inc. (Jerome I. Baumoehl, NCARB), has filed an application requesting Architectural Commission review and approval to replace the existing storefront with impact window and doors and a new awning.

Mr. Martin inquire about the portion of the façade to be removed. Mr. Baumoehl further explained the project, particularly the removal of the elements on the existing façade.

Mr. Floersheimer thought the design was acceptable and added he could support the design.

Ms. Connaughton preferred the existing design and was not in support of the proposed. She thought the existing design felt more like Palm Beach. Ms. Grace agreed.

Mr. Kirchhoff agreed and wondered if Mr. Baumoehl's client would apply their name to the existing building. Mr. Baumoehl responded and discussed the condition of the existing stucco.

Mr. Sammons stated that the existing storefront could be restored. He supported the comment to keep the existing façade.

Ms. Connaughton thought some interesting changes could be made to the glazing.

Mr. Baumoehl inquired if the storefront could be ordered. After some discussion, the Commission did not support the request.

Mr. Sammons preferred the existing center door of the storefront.

Ms. Shiverick suggested changing the fluted limestone to stucco.

Mr. Martin asked staff if the sign met the zoning ordinance. Ms. Pardue stated the proposed sign complied. Mr. Martin liked the existing condition of the building. He recommended returning with a different logo and a simpler façade.

Motion made by Ms. Grace to defer the project to the September 28, 2022 meeting.

She informed the Commission that Mr. Bergman presented the issue at the August Landmarks Preservation Commission meeting if they would like to listen.

Please note: Mr. Martin left the meeting at 4:02 p.m.

Ms. Shiverick inquired about the chance of the bill getting appealed. Mr. Murphy responded and discussed the efforts to obtain a modification to the law.

Mr. Sammons wondered if the bill affected historic districts. Mr. Murphy responded no.

3. Commission

Ms. Shiverick stated that the Preservation Foundation had an idea of creating a design guideline for the island. She stated that the Foundation was willing to pay for an in-depth study of each neighborhood to assist in the creation of these guidelines. She stated these design guidelines would be provided to the ARCOM and LPC members as well as design professionals.

Mr. Murphy explained why the historic districts were not affected. Ms. Grace thought the Sea Street districts should be revisited or placing the entire island in a historic district as suggested by Mr. Sammons.

Mr. Murphy continued to answer questions relating to which landmark properties would be affected by the new bill, the bill's effect on the historically significant building program, and the conservation districts.

Mr. Murphy was excited to hear about the Preservation Foundation's efforts on the design guidelines. He recommended setting up an appointment with the consultant for Code Review to allow them to collaborate.
