None.

Question applies to Code Enforcement Board

Do you have any personal experience with the Code Enforcement Board in the Town of Palm Beach or other jurisdictions? (Please explain)

Yes. Two issues in Palm Beach: a rearrangement of patio blocks which was okayed by Rachel Houston et al, and song bird feeding. Also through ownership of historic Lake Avenue property in Lake Worth consisting of 2 commercial stores, one a men's clothing store and the second a hair salon. It is an historic property over 100 years old, beautiful, now an extinct wood, Dade County pine flooring and structure.

If you are currently serving on a Town board, commission, or committee, please identify in the space below and check the "I Agree" box indicating that you will resign from that position if you are appointed to the position you are seeking in this application.

I agree that I will resign from the board, commission, or committee if I am appointed to the position I am seeking in this application.

☒ I Agree

Why do you feel you are qualified to serve on the Town's Code Enforcement Board?

Due to my interest in zoning, open spaces, security, water quality, flooding, quality of life, fairness, Justice, historic preservation, equality in application of laws, respect for property rights as well as governmental regulations, environmental conservation and business interest, I be would like to serve on this committee. It's a well Balanced community in these varied respects that creates a welcoming and respectful community which in turn attracts people of substance. As a property owner in East Hampton, New York, this 17th century village on the ocean holds high historic character and preservation. I am familiar with the issues. I am familiar with architecture and construction issues. My community (formerly a 130 acre farm) had an architectural review committee and I was a member of that committee for over 10 years, President of the Property Owners Assn for 14 years, I built my own house there in 1990.
