☒ I Agree

Question applies to Code Enforcement Board

Why do you feel you are qualified to serve on the Town's Code Enforcement Board?

Throughout my 31 year professional career I successfully navigated state and federal regulatory bodies in the US and other jurisdictions to build great financial services products for some of the largest corporations in the world. These relevant skills along with my familiarity with the Town zoning code, my own construction knowledge and work ethic make me a committed and valuable asset to hear cases involving violations of the Town Code and ordinances where a pending or repeated violation exists.

Question applies to multiple boards

In the event you are applying to be a Regular Member and you are not successful, will you accept appointment as an Alternate Member should the Town Council wish to appoint you as an Alternate Member?

☒ Yes ☐ No

To enable Town Council to consider potential conflicts of interest, please list the family members who live and/or work in the Town of Palm Beach, including your spouse, parents, siblings or children.

CODE ENFORCEMENT BOARD

Hears cases involving violations of the Town Code and ordinances and imposes administrative fines and other noncriminal penalties where a pending or repeated violation exists. Members must be residents and are appointed by Town Council on the basis of experience or interest in the fields of zoning and building control. The Board includes, whenever possible, an architect, business person, engineer, general contractor, realtor, subcontractor, general member, or person with experience in the field of public health. In addition, the Town Council may appoint two alternate members for the purpose of serving in the absence of any of the board members. Members (and alternate members) shall be appointed for terms of three years. A member of the code enforcement board shall not be appointed for more than two consecutive three-year terms, but shall be eligible for reappointment upon the lapse of nine months after the expiration of the member's second consecutive three-year term.
