Question applies to Landmarks Preservation Commission

Why are you interested in serving on the Landmarks Preservation Commission?

As a native of Palm Beach I have seen tremendous change in recent years. I grew up on the North end in a Maurice Fatio home that is still there although not landmarked. It is imperative that we protect the aesthetic of our town through thoughtful preservation of important buildings both commercial and residential. I have an understanding of the town, its history and challenges facing it due to so many new residents. Although change is necessary and expected, the ramifications of preserving or demolishing buildings needs to be carefully and thoughtfully considered. I have extensive experience working on committees in the non-profit arena and have a basic love of Architecture and the importance of preserving our town character. I am fair and respectful to others opinions and effective in problem solving.

Question applies to Landmarks Preservation Commission

How many meetings of the Landmarks Preservation Commission have you attended in the last year?

3

Please indicate if there are any periods of time for which you will be unavailable for meetings.

I have a flexible schedule and should be available for all meetings. My travel schedule can work around scheduled meetings.

Question applies to multiple boards

If you have served on any boards/commissions/committees in the Town of Palm Beach or elsewhere, please list them and include details such as length of service, attendance record, etc.

For many years I split my time between Palm Beach and Seattle where my husband is from. While in Seattle I served on the PONCHO Board (Patrons of NW Charitable Organizations), for over 20 years. PONCHO was the largest Arts benefactor in the greater Seattle area for over 35 years, raising and allocating money for the arts community including the Seattle Symphony, Seattle Art Museum, Pacific NW Ballet and numerous smaller Arts entities. I attended all required meetings and events on a regular basis. Both my husband and I served on the Board of Music Aid NW, a non profit focused on insuring art and music programs in public schools. I was a member of the Junior League of Seattle for over 10 years serving on numerous committees including several focusing on mothers and children in surrounding communities. Commitments depended on the specific committee. I always upheld my responsibilities both in leadership roles and as a committee member. We bought our home in Palm Beach in 2000. When we moved to back to Palm Beach full time in 2012 I resigned from the Seattle area Boards. I am a member of the Civic Association and past member of the Preservation Foundation.

Question applies to Landmarks Preservation Commission

Have you ever lived in or owned a landmarked home or property?

☐ Yes ☒ No

Question applies to Landmarks Preservation Commission

If So, where?

I have not lived in or owned a landmarked property but did grow up in a Maurice Fatio designed home at 260 El Pueblo Way.

Question applies to Landmarks Preservation Commission

If you have not lived in or owned a landmarked property, do you have any experience in dealing with landmarked properties? Please explain.

Yes, I have been a Real Estate Broker in Palm Beach for over 10 years and in Seattle for many years prior. In Palm Beach in particular we understand the importance of Landmarked and historically significant properties. I have sold many homes over 50 years in Palm Beach and El Cid. Often they are renovated to retain the flavor of their original design without tearing down. I grew up in a Fatio home, although it is not landmarked it is in tact has been thoughtfully renovated. My personal residence is a North End bungalow built in the 1950's.

Please provide details regarding your educational background:

I was fortunate to go to nursery school at the original Bethesda by the Sea, built in 1894 on the Maddock estate. It was only operated for a couple of years for local children. Every time I ride my bike by I am so grateful that it's part of our town fabric. I attended Palm Beach Public Elementary and Middle school. Following one year at Palm Beach High, I transferred up North and graduated from Brewster Academy located in Wolfeboro, NH in 1979. I attended University of Colorado Boulder as an English major from 1979-1982. I have always had a love for Architecture and the Arts. Although not my stated Major, I took classes in Architecture, Art History and Interior Design. University of California at Santa Barbara 1986-1988. Non-degree.

LANDMARKS PRESERVATION COMMISSION

(LPC) - The LPC safeguards the Town's historic and cultural resources through its landmarked structures and historic districts. This State of Florida Certified Commission reviews and approves structural and landscape modifications to Designated structures and properties. The LPC is comprised of seven regular and three alternate members, who are registered voters of the Town of Palm Beach and appointed by the Town Council, and who have, to the highest extent practicable, a special knowledge of and a known interest in landmarks preservation. One commissioner may be a non-resident of the Town who possesses specific knowledge or skills directly related to the preservation of historic structures or property. At least two members, but not more than three members, shall be registered architects in the State of Florida. In the event that there are, in the discretion of the Town Council, no bona fide applicants who are registered architects in the State of Florida, the Town may solicit and appoint architects registered outside the State of Florida to fill one of the architect seats. Members are appointed for three-year terms and no member may serve more than two consecutive terms, although a member may be eligible for reappointment upon the lapse of nine months after the expiration of the member's second consecutive three-year term. Although an alternate member may not serve more than two three-year terms as an alternate, an alternate member may be appointed to serve as a regular member of the commission and, in the event of such appointment, shall be entitled to serve two full three-year terms thereafter.
