Durring construction the applicant installed construction screening in front of the wall, which vas a violation of the safe sight triangle requirements. This material was promptly removed. The photograph shows the existing site wall with all improvements removed.

EXHIBIT "B"

View looking south down North Lake Way from the intersection of Monterey Road.